

Mamaison Hotel Le Regina awarded “The Best Boutique Hotel in Poland”

Five-star Mamaison Hotel Le Regina Warsaw, which is included in portfolio of CPI Hotels, the largest hotel group in the Czech Republic, won the award for “The Best Boutique Hotel in Poland” at gala evening of Business Traveller Awards 2015 held in Warsaw.

Renowned Business Traveller Magazine has a long tradition it was established in 1976 in London, being issued in Poland since 2009. The magazine’s prestigious competition whose winners are voted by the readers praised the representatives from the tourism industry in almost thirty categories including the best hotels, airports, airlines and additional services. Third edition of the competition showed the preferences of the business travelers on the Polish market. According to consultancy firm Deloitte that conducted the poll the featured group of respondents consisted of more than 50 percent people from age group 40-59 years old, 85 percent living in large cities, 95 percent classified in the category of higher management with above-average income.

Mamaison Hotel Le Regina is part of Mamaison Hotels & Residences brand which includes the collection of 9 hotels and residences of four-star and five-star category in Prague, Bratislava, Warsaw, Budapest and Moscow. The upscale deluxe hotel is located in historical Mokrowski Palace and offers accommodation in 58 rooms and 3 suites. Thanks to the historical building, modern elegantly furnished rooms and high-profile location, the hotel ranks among the most sought-after spots in Poland.
